

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Andrew Felker, of Columbia, Missouri, who is leaving his position as Public Information Specialist with Missouri House of Representatives Communications Department to attend law school at the University of Missouri-Columbia School of Law this fall; and

Whereas, Andrew Felker has earned the affection and respect of his colleagues through the dutiful discharge of his many and varied activities while working for House Communications, activities which include speech writing, press release drafting, organizing committee meetings and the media issues related to them, and developing educational materials pertaining to voter identification requirements for the citizens of this great state; and

Whereas, a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia with a bachelor of science in interdisciplinary studies and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, and Golden Key International, Andrew Felker served as an intern for the Speaker of the Missouri House of Representatives during the ninety-second regular legislative session, held between January and May of 2005, and as an intern for Missouri Governor Matt Blunt during his gubernatorial campaign in late 2004; and

Whereas, Andrew Felker previously held other positions or volunteered his professional expertise for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in Missouri, Maryland, and Washington, D.C.; the Boy Scouts of America, in Columbia; and Boone Hospital Center, also in Columbia; and

Whereas, Andrew Felker is the beloved husband of Sara Felker and devoted father of Audrey Felker, and he and his wife are very pleased by the expectation of another daughter in the late fall or early winter:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our sincerest congratulations to Andrew Felker on this acceptance into law school and to wish him and his family every success, happiness, and prosperity in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Andrew Felker as a measure of our esteem and gratitude for the exemplary service he has rendered to this legislative body.

Offered by Speaker Rod Jetton
District No. 156

I, Rod Jetton, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. ____, adopted ____, 2007.

Rod Jetton, Speaker